Description of the Product

Participation Certificates

This Product (each a "Participation Certificate" and collectively the "Participation Certificates") allows for participation in the performance of the Reference Portfolio, which is calculated net of relevant costs and fees, as further described herein.

Reference Portfolio

The UBS CIO Power and Resources Equity Preference Portfolio (EUR) (the "Reference Portfolio") is a notional portfolio denominated in EUR (the "Reference Portfolio Currency") that intends to replicate the UBS CIO Power and Resources Equity Preference List (the "UBS CIO List" or the "Target Portfolio"), as amended from time to time in the relevant publication (the "Report") in accordance with the provisions in the description of the Reference Portfolio (the "Reference Portfolio Description") in Annex 1.

The Target Portfolio consists of a list of stocks (each a "Target Stock Constituent"). The Reference Portfolio will notionally represent a list of stocks (each a "Stock Constituent". The Reference Portfolio shall also include notional FX forward contracts (each a "FX Forward Constituent" and together with the Stock Constituents, the “Constituents”) to partially hedge the currency risks associated with the Stock Constituents, as further described in Currency Treatment below.

The Reference Portfolio may also include from time to time a notional cash position denominated in the Reference Portfolio Currency (the “Cash Position”, and together with the Constituents, the “Reference Portfolio Components”). The Cash Position will accrue interest at the prevailing reference rate (the “Reference Rate”), as described in Annex 1, which may be negative from time to time.

The performance of the Reference Portfolio will be net of the relevant fees and costs, as further described herein.

The notional value of the Reference Portfolio on the Pricing Date is the Initial Reference Portfolio Level.

In the event the Issuer elects to invest the proceeds in any Reference Portfolio Component for the purpose of hedging its obligations under this Product, the holders of the Product will not have any direct interest or beneficial ownership in any Reference Portfolio Component at any time. From time to time the Chief Investment Office of UBS Wealth Management (“UBS CIO”) may terminate the UBS CIO List. Should the UBS CIO announce another list intended to serve as a successor to this UBS CIO List (such list the “Successor UBS CIO List”) as determined by the Calculation Agent, acting in good faith and in a commercially reasonable manner, then this Product will automatically reference the Successor UBS CIO List, at which point such Successor UBS CIO List shall be considered as the UBS CIO List for the purposes of this Product.

Currency Treatment	The Reference Portfolio may be exposed to Constituents denominated in currencies other than the Settlement Currency.

On each FX Hedging Date, the position in each Stock Constituent (determined using the value of the Stock Constituent in respect of the Weekday immediately preceding the relevant FX Hedging Date) not denominated in the Reference Portfolio Currency is notionally hedged by the Calculation Agent through one month FX forward contracts expiring on the following FX Hedge Expiry Date (each a “Currency Hedge”).

Each period starting on an FX Hedging Date and ending on the immediately following FX Hedging Date shall be a “Hedging Period”. The first Hedging Period will commence on the first FX Hedging Date after the Pricing Date and the last Hedging Period will end on (and including) the immediately following FX Hedge Expiry Date, which for the avoidance of doubt may or may not be after the Expiration Date. As such, there may exist no partial hedge for the currency exchange risks between the Pricing Date and the first FX Hedging Date.

The Currency Hedge will not be applied where the Calculation Agent is unable, after using commercially reasonable efforts, to enter into FX forward contracts it deems necessary to hedge the currency risk of any Stock Constituent (in particular in case of extraordinary market conditions).

During a Hedging Period, the Currency Hedge will not be adjusted due to the performance of any Stock Constituent or due to the occurrence of Rebalancings. Therefore, the investor is still exposed to the corresponding residual currency exchange risks.

Any notional profits or losses resulting from the Currency Hedge will be settled into the Cash Position.

"FX Hedging Date" shall mean the 20th calendar day of each month, or if such day is not a Weekday or the Calculation Agent is not open for business, the immediately following Weekday on which the Calculation Agent is open for business.

"FX Hedge Expiry Date" shall mean the 20th calendar day of each month, of if such day is not considered to be a business day for a specific currency pair as determined by the Calculation Agent, the immediately following day that is a business day for such specific currency pair.

Dividend Treatment

In respect of any Stock Constituents which are, or include, U.S. equity securities, for purposes of determining the amount of a dividend treated as notionally reinvested, such dividend shall be reduced by the 30% withholding tax imposed by Section 871(m) of the U.S. Internal Revenue Code of 1986, as amended.

For long positions in Stock Constituents, a notional amount reflecting net dividends of such Constituents as converted into the Reference Portfolio Currency (if applicable) at the then prevailing currency exchange rate, each as determined by the Calculation Agent, acting in good faith and in a commercially reasonable manner, will be paid into the Cash Position on the ex-dividend date of that Constituent.

Where the date on which the dividend amount is declared for a Stock Constituent is after the ex-dividend date of the respective Constituent, a notional amount reflecting the estimated net dividend shall be determined by the Calculation Agent, acting in good faith and in a commercially reasonable manner.

Should an event arise where the declared or otherwise estimated dividend for a Constituent is revised following the ex-dividend date of such Constituent, the Calculation Agent shall:

- a) make no adjustment to the net dividend that was initially reflected in the Reference Portfolio on the relevant ex-dividend date where the dividend paying Stock Constituent is incorporated in South Korea, Japan or Russia, provided that where the confirmed dividend is zero (0), then only in this case shall the Calculation Agent retain the right to adjust the dividend initially reflected in the Reference Portfolio following the ex-dividend date; or
- b) make an adjustment to the net dividend that was initially reflected in the Reference Portfolio on the relevant ex-dividend date where the dividend paying Stock Constituent is incorporated in any other country.

Where an adjustment to the net dividend is made following the relevant ex-dividend date in accordance with the provisions above, the Calculation Agent shall, acting in good faith, have the discretion to adjust the historical Reference Portfolio Level(s) to reflect any update, revision, subsequent declaration, or suspension which the Calculation Agent determines is material.

Issue Date / Payment Date	26 November 2024

Redemption

Redemption Amount	Each Product entitles the investor to receive on the Redemption Date an amount in the Settlement Currency, as calculated by the Calculation Agent, according to the following formula:
-------------------	--

“Final Reference Portfolio Level” means the Reference Portfolio Level as determined by the Calculation Agent on the Expiration Date, the Early Termination Date or the Automatic Early Termination Date (as applicable) and subject to Unwind Disruption, as the sum of:

- i) the notional unwind proceeds as converted into the Settlement Currency where applicable, using the prevailing currency exchange rate, as determined by the Calculation Agent, acting in good faith and in a commercially reasonable manner, that would be realised by a notional investor (in the same position as the Issuer) when selling and/or unwinding the prevailing Constituents comprising the Reference Portfolio; and
- ii) the value of the Cash Position minus any accrued but not yet deducted Issuer Fee, Distributor Fee and/or Rebalance Fee.

In the event that a notional investor (in the same position as the Issuer) would be unable to unwind its positions in the Constituents by or on the Expiration Date, the Early Termination Date or the Automatic Early Termination Date due to the occurrence of a Market Disruption Event, market closure or otherwise, as determined by the Calculation Agent, acting in good faith in a commercially reasonable manner (such event an “Unwind Disruption”), the Issuer reserves the right to postpone the Expiration Date, the Early Termination Date or the Automatic Early Termination Date.

In the event that a notional investor (in the same position as the Issuer) may be required to unwind its positions in all Constituents over multiple days due to the occurrence of a Market Disruption Event, market closure or otherwise, then the final Expiration Date, the final Early Termination Date or the final Automatic Early Termination Date (as applicable) shall be the date on which the last Constituent may be unwound.

Please note that the Redemption Amount may be less than the initially invested capital.

The first possible Early Termination Date will be 31 March 2025. There is no early termination right for the investor in the Product.
Automatic Early Termination Event	An Automatic Early Termination Event is deemed to have occurred if the Calculation Agent becomes aware that the UBS CIO List has been terminated or withdrawn without the provision of a Successor UBS CIO List. In such case, the Product shall be terminated on the one year anniversary of the publication date of the last Report, or if one year anniversary is not a Business Day then the immediately following Business Day (such date the “Automatic Early Termination Date”). For the avoidance of doubt, the Reference Portfolio will not be adjusted following an Automatic Early Termination Event and remain a static portfolio as of the last date on which any Rebalance occurred, save that the Currency Hedge will continue to apply until the Automatic Early Termination Date in accordance with the provisions under Currency Treatment above.
Reference Portfolio Level	Except on the Expiration Date, the Early Termination Date or the Automatic Early Termination Date, as applicable, the Calculation Agent shall calculate the Reference Portfolio Level, acting in good faith in a commercially reasonable manner, in respect of each Weekday, subject to a Market Disruption Event (each a “Reference Portfolio Calculation Date”). The Reference Portfolio Level in respect of each Reference Portfolio Calculation Date is the sum of (i) the closing price or value of each Constituent on such Reference Portfolio Calculation Date converted into the Reference Portfolio Currency if required (taking into account the number of units of each Constituent in respect of which the Reference Portfolio has exposure), and (ii) the value of the Cash Position (which is net of the relevant fees and costs), all of the above as determined by the Calculation Agent, acting in good faith in a commercially reasonable manner. The Final Reference Portfolio Level shall be determined by the Calculation Agent in accordance with the provisions under “Redemption Amount” above.

Adjustments, Disruptions & Termination

Adjustments to the composition of the Reference Portfolio	Notwithstanding the Market Disruption Event provisions below, if, at any time until (and including) the Redemption Date, an event occurs in relation to a Constituent which the Calculation Agent determines requires an adjustment(s) to be made to the composition of the Reference Portfolio, then the Calculation Agent shall (i) determine which adjustment(s) are to be made to the Reference Portfolio Components with a view to account for the effect of the relevant event and to preserve (to the extent reasonable practicable) the Reference Portfolio Level immediately prior to the occurrence of such event, and (ii) determine the date on which such adjustment(s) shall take effect.
Market Disruption Event(s)	A Market Disruption Event means, in relation to a Constituent (or an Eligible Constituent in respect of a Rebalancing only), the occurrence or existence on any calendar day (other than a Saturday or Sunday) or on any number of consecutive calendar days (other than a Saturday or Sunday) any one or more of the following events: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> (i) a limitation, suspension, or disruption of trading in any Constituent (or component of any Constituent) imposed by the Exchange or the Related Exchange; (ii) the closing or settlement price for any Constituent (of component of any Constituent) is a "limit price", which means that the closing or settlement price for such Constituent for a day has increased or decreased from the previous day's closing price by the maximum amount permitted under applicable rules of the Exchange or the Related Exchange; (iii) failure by the Exchange, the Related Exchange or other price source as applicable to announce or publish the closing or settlement price in respect of any Constituent (or component of any Constituent); (iv) the Exchange or the Related Exchange for any Constituent fails to open for trading during its regular trading session;

- (v) the closure on any Exchange Business Day of any Exchange or Related Exchange in respect of any Constituent (or component of any Constituent), prior to its Scheduled Closing Time;
- (vi) any event (other than an early closure as described above) that disrupts or impairs (as determined by the Calculation Agent) the ability of market participants in general to effect transactions in, or obtain market values for any Constituent (or any Eligible Constituent in respect of a Rebalancing only or component thereof);
- (vii) an FX Disruption Event has occurred;

if in the determination of the Issuer or Calculation Agent, any such event is material.

Consequences of a Market Disruption Event

The consequences of a Market Disruption Event are as follows:

- (A) In the event that the Calculation Agent determines that a Constituent Business Day is a Disrupted Day with respect to a Constituent (or an Eligible Constituent, as the case may be) for the purposes of a Rebalancing, then such Constituent shall not be notionally sold or purchased (or an Eligible Constituent shall not be notionally purchased) on the intended effective date of the relevant Rebalancing.
- (B) In the event that the Calculation Agent determines that any Reference Portfolio Calculation Date is a Disrupted Day with respect to any Constituent, then for the purposes of determining the Reference Portfolio Level as at such Reference Portfolio Calculation Date, (a) the price of each Constituent not affected by the occurrence of such Disrupted Day shall be the closing price of such Constituent, as determined by the Calculation Agent, acting in good faith in a commercially reasonable manner, and (b) the price of each Constituent affected by the occurrence of such Disrupted Day shall be determined by the Calculation Agent in its good faith estimate of the fair market value (which may be zero) of such Constituent as of such Reference Portfolio Calculation Date.
- (C) If the Calculation Agent determines that the date scheduled to be the Expiration Date, the Early Termination Date or the Automatic Early Termination Date, as applicable, is a Disrupted Day in respect of any Constituent, such date shall be the Expiration Date, the Early Termination Date or the Automatic Early Termination Date, as applicable, for those Constituents which are not affected by the occurrence of a Disrupted Day while the Expiration Date, the Early Termination Date or the Automatic Early Termination Date, as applicable, for any Constituent that is affected by the occurrence of a Disrupted Day shall be postponed to the following Constituent Business Day with respect to such Constituent. If in respect of such Constituent the Disrupted Day is persisting for up to 8 (eight) Constituent Business Days immediately following the date scheduled to be the Expiration Date, the Early Termination Date or the Automatic Early Termination Date, as applicable, the price of such Constituent shall be determined by the Calculation Agent by reference to its good faith estimate of the value for such Constituent on that eighth Constituent Business Day.
- (D) On the occurrence of an FX Disruption Event, the value of any Constituent not denominated in the Settlement Currency shall be determined by the Calculation Agent, acting in good faith in a commercially reasonable manner, and the Calculation Agent shall have the right to adjust the value of the Reference Portfolio to account for such FX Disruption Event.

Disrupted Day

Any day on which the Calculation Agent determines that, in relation to a Constituent or Eligible Constituent, a Market Disruption Event has occurred.

FX Disruption Event

An FX Disruption Event means (i) an event that generally makes it illegal, impossible, impractical or inadvisable to convert 1 (one) unit of the currency in which any Constituent is denominated (the "Denomination Currency") into the Settlement Currency, or an event that generally makes it impossible to deliver the Settlement Currency from accounts in which they are held to accounts outside of the jurisdiction of the Denomination Currency; (ii) the general unavailability to exchange the Settlement Currency at a spot rate (applicable to the purchase of the Settlement Currency for the Denomination Currency) in any legal currency exchange market in the principal financial centre for the Denomination Currency, if, in the determination of the Calculation Agent, the occurrence of any such events is material; or (iii) the government of a relevant Constituent gives public notice of its intention to impose any capital controls which the Calculation Agent determines in good faith are likely to materially affect the Issuer's ability to hedge its position under the Product.

Price Source Disruption Event

It may become impossible to obtain the price or level of one or more Constituents during the lifetime of the Product and/or on the Expiration Date, the Early Termination Date or the Automatic Early Termination Date, as applicable, due to one or more of the price sources normally used in the relevant market for the Constituents being unavailable because an unscheduled bank closure is declared on short notice in the relevant country or due to the occurrence of any other disruption (each a "Price Source Disruption Event"). The Calculation Agent will determine, acting in good faith in a commercially reasonable manner, whether a Price Source Disruption Event has occurred.

A Price Source Disruption Event may lead to (i) a postponement of the Expiration Date, the Early Termination Date or the Automatic Early Termination Date, as applicable, and therefore of the Redemption Amount, (ii) to the use of an alternative source for the relevant Constituent level and/or (iii) to the unilateral determination of the applicable Constituent level by the Calculation Agent.

Such postponement, use of alternative price source and/or determination of the applicable Constituent level by the Calculation Agent may affect, materially or otherwise, the Redemption Amount which the investor will receive.

Reference Rate Adjustment Event

A Reference Rate Adjustment Event is deemed to have occurred if a Reference Rate Component (i) has ceased to be, or will cease to be, available, (ii) is one which a relevant regulatory supervisor has determined is no longer, or as of a specified future date will no longer be, representative of the underlying market and economic reality that such rate is intended to measure, or (iii) is no longer suitable for the purpose of determining the Reference Rate taking into account the accrual rate or cost of financing incurred or charged by the Issuer, in each case as determined by the Calculation Agent, acting in good faith in a commercially reasonable manner.

Significant Risks for Investors

Investors in this Product should be experienced investors and familiar with both derivative products and the financial markets. Potential investors should understand the risks associated with an investment in the Product and shall only reach an investment decision after careful considerations with their legal, tax, financial and other advisors of (i) the suitability of an investment in the Product in the light of their own particular financial, fiscal and other circumstances (ii) the information set out in this document and (iii) the Underlying(s).

In addition to the market risk with regard to the development of the Underlying, each investor bears the general risk that the financial situation of the Issuer could deteriorate (“Issuer Risk”). The Product constitutes immediate, unsecured and unsubordinated obligations of the Issuer, which, particularly in case of insolvency of the Issuer, rank pari passu with each and all other current and future unsecured and unsubordinated obligations of the Issuer, with the exception of those that have priority due to mandatory statutory provisions. The general assessment of the Issuer’s creditworthiness may affect the value of the Product. This assessment generally depends on the ratings assigned to the Issuer or its affiliated companies by rating agencies such as Moody’s, Fitch and Standard & Poor’s. The Issuer Rating indicated in this document reflects the situation at the time of issuance and may be subject to change. The actual Issuer Rating at any given time can be seen on the Issuer’s website (www.ubs.com) under “Investor Relations”.

In addition to the risk factors below, further risk factors are set out in the Product Documentation.

Risks & Additional Information

Capital Protection (at Expiry)	None
Risk Potential in comparison to a direct investment in the Reference Portfolio	The risk potential is similar to a direct investment in the assets contained in the notional Reference Portfolio.
Issuer Call right	Yes; additionally, an Automatic Early Termination may occur.
Currency Risk	As the Settlement Currency is different from the currency in which some or all assets contained in the notional Reference Portfolio are denominated, the value of this Product is exposed to the corresponding currency exchange rates. The currency risk may be partially hedged through the use of FX forward contracts.
Role of UBS CIO	UBS CIO publishes the UBS CIO List independently from the existence of this Product. The publication of the UBS CIO List, as amended from time to time by UBS CIO, formally constitutes research material and shall not constitute any form of a recommendation or investment advice for investors on behalf of the Reference Portfolio, UBS CIO or the Issuer. UBS CIO assumes no responsibility or liability for the performance of the Reference Portfolio. Furthermore, investors should be aware that UBS CIO may stop publishing the UBS CIO List in its sole and absolute discretion complying with the rules of being an independent research provider and has no duty to provide a reason for the discontinuance of the publication of the UBS CIO List.
Automatic Early Termination Event	Investors should be aware that upon the occurrence of an Automatic Early Termination Event, the Reference Portfolio and therefore the Product will no longer be rebalanced and will remain a static portfolio exposed to the Constituents part of the Reference Portfolio immediately before the occurrence of the Automatic Early Termination Event, save that the Currency Hedge will continue to apply until the Automatic Early Termination Date in accordance with the provisions under Currency Treatment above.
Extraordinary Termination Risk	The Issuer may terminate and redeem the Product prior to the Expiration Date in accordance with the Product Documentation for reasons including, but not limited to, a termination of the UBS CIO List without the provision of a Successor UBS CIO List. In case of such extraordinary termination, the Issuer shall pay to the investors an extraordinary termination amount on as determined by the Calculation Agent which is equivalent to the market value of the Product, less any costs in respect of the Automatic Early Termination Date. Potential investors should note that the extraordinary termination amount may deviate from and may be considerably below the amount which would be payable pursuant to the final redemption provisions on the date that would have otherwise been the scheduled Redemption Date if such termination did not occur. Investors are not entitled to request any further payments after the termination of the Product.

No systematic reporting of last-sale information for foreign currencies

There is no systematic reporting of last-sale information for foreign currencies. Reasonable current bid and offer information is available in certain brokers' offices, in bank foreign currency trading offices, and to others who wish to subscribe for this information, but this information will not necessarily reflect the relevant currency exchange rate relevant for determining the value of the Product. The absence of last-sale information and the limited availability of quotations to individual investors make it difficult for many investors to obtain timely, accurate data about the state of the underlying foreign exchange markets.

Illiquidity Risk in Secondary Market

The Issuer or the Lead Manager, as applicable, intends, under normal market conditions, to provide bid and/or offer prices for this Product on a regular basis. However, the Issuer or the Lead Manager, as applicable, makes no firm commitment to provide liquidity by means of bid and/or offer prices for this Product, and assumes no legal obligation to quote any such prices or with respect to the level or determination of such prices.

Potential investors therefore should not rely on the ability to sell this Product at a specific time or at a specific price. Potential investors should note that prices quoted typically include a spread and therefore may deviate from the market value of the Product. In special market situations, where the Issuer is completely unable to enter into hedging transactions, or where such transactions are very difficult to enter into, the spread between the bid and offer prices in the secondary market may be temporarily expanded, in order to limit the economic risks of the Issuer. Hence, investors might sell at a price considerably lower than the actual price of the Product at the time of its sale. By selling the Product in the secondary market investors may receive less than the capital invested.

Potential investors also understand that no active or liquid market is expected to exist to enable sales of the Product between or among holders. Furthermore, no third party is expected to quote prices or otherwise make a market for this Product. In addition, the price of the Product may be dependent upon information known only to the Issuer and/or Lead Manager. As such, potential Investors should understand that they may be unable to transfer the securities for value without the cooperation of the Issuer and/or Lead Manager, which may not be provided.

In case of a secondary market transaction, there is a possibility that costs, including taxes, related to or in connection with the Product may arise for investors that are not paid by the Issuer or imposed by the Issuer.

Market Disruption risk

Investors are exposed to Market Disruption Events (such as trading disruption, exchange disruption and early closure of the relevant exchange), which could have an impact on the redemption amount through delay in payment, change in value or suspension of trading in the Product in the secondary market.

Calculation Agent's Discretion

In certain instances, the Calculation Agent has discretion to make various determinations and adjustments under the Product, any of which may have an adverse effect on the value and/or the amounts payable under the Product. Prospective investors should be aware that although any determinations and adjustments made by the Calculation Agent shall be done by it acting in good faith in a commercially reasonable manner, it is not obliged to take into account the interests of the holders of the Product. Such determinations may have an impact on the value and financial return of the Product. In the absence of manifest error by the Calculation Agent or in the absence of the Calculation Agent acting fraudulently, with wilful default or negligently, such determinations and adjustments shall be final and binding between the parties.

Withholding Tax

Investors in this Product should note that any payment under this Product may be subject to withholding tax (such as, inter alia, Swiss Withholding Tax, and/or withholding related to FATCA or 871(m) of the US Tax Code). Any payments due under this Product are net of such tax.

Regarding 871(m) investors should note that a 30% withholding tax is imposed on certain "dividend equivalents" paid or deemed paid to a non-U.S. holder with respect to a "specified equity-linked instrument" that references one or more dividend-paying U.S. equity securities. The withholding tax can apply even if the instrument does not provide for payments that reference dividends. Treasury regulations provide that the withholding tax applies to all dividend equivalents paid or deemed paid on specified equity-linked instruments that have a delta of one ("delta one specified equity-linked instruments") issued after 2016 and to all dividend equivalents paid or deemed paid on all other specified equity-linked instruments issued after 2024.

The Issuer will treat the Product as specified equity-linked instruments that are subject to withholding on dividend equivalents. The Issuer will withhold 30% in respect of dividend equivalents paid or deemed paid on the Product and will not pay any additional amounts with respect to any such taxes withheld. In respect of any Constituents which are U.S. equity securities, for purposes of determining the amount of a dividend treated as notionally reinvested, such dividend shall be reduced by the 30% withholding tax as referenced under the section "Dividend Treatment" above. The Issuer hereby notifies each holder that for purposes of Section 871(m), the Issuer will withhold in respect of dividend equivalents paid or deemed paid on the Product on the dividend payment date as described in Treasury regulations section 1.1441-2(e)(4) and Revenue Procedure 2017-15 §3.03(B), as applicable. Investors in the Product should consult their own tax advisors regarding the application of the withholding tax to their Product and the availability of any reduction in tax pursuant to an income tax treaty. No assurance can be given that investors in the Product will be able to successfully claim a reduction in tax pursuant to an income tax treaty.

Please refer to the Product Documentation for detailed information. If the Issuer is required to withhold any amount pursuant to Section 871(m) or FATCA of the U.S. Tax Code, the Issuer will not be required to pay additional amounts with respect to the amount so withheld.

The current composition of the Reference Portfolio (including the respective weights) may be requested free of charge at any time from UBS AG, P.O. Box, CH-8098 Zurich (Switzerland), via telephone (+41-(0)44-239 47 03), fax (+41-(0)44-239 69 14) or via e-mail (swiss-prospectus@ubs.com).

Target Portfolio Publication Event A “Target Portfolio Publication Event” is deemed to have occurred if the Calculation Agent receives a Report from the UBS CIO with an updated Target Portfolio.

For the avoidance of doubt, a Target Portfolio Publication Event is not deemed to have occurred if the most recent Report contains a Target Portfolio that contains both (i) the same list of stocks, and (ii) same weight, allocation or exposure to each stock, as the Target Portfolio in the Report immediately preceding the most recent Report.

Target Portfolio Publication Date The “Target Portfolio Publication Date” shall be the Weekday (or if such Weekday is December 25 or January 1 then the immediately following Weekday) on which the Calculation Agent receives a Report from the UBS CIO with an updated Target Portfolio, provided that if such publication occurs after 4pm London time on any Weekday (as determined by the Calculation Agent acting in good faith and reasonably), then the immediately following Weekday (or if such Weekday is December 25 or January 1 then the immediately following Weekday) shall be considered as the Target Portfolio Publication Date.

Reference Portfolio Implementation Date Subject to the non-occurrence of a Market Disruption Event, the date on which a Rebalancing (as described below) is initiated (the “Reference Portfolio Implementation Date”) is the Constituent Business Day on which the first Stock Constituent or Eligible Stock Constituent (as the case may be) in respect of such Rebalancing may be notionally added to, removed from or adjusted within the Reference Portfolio immediately following the Target Portfolio Publication Date, as determined by the Calculation Agent, acting in good faith in a commercially reasonable manner.

For the avoidance of doubt, it is possible that a Rebalancing which encompasses more than one Stock Constituent or Eligible Stock Constituent (or where the liquidity in a particular Stock Constituent does not allow for the notional addition or removal of such Stock Constituent or Eligible Stock Constituent to occur over a single day), the Rebalancing may occur over multiple different days following the Target Portfolio Publication Date. The definition of the Reference Portfolio Implementation Date, however, shall continue to be as defined above as such date occurs when a Rebalancing is initiated, and not the entire period over which a Rebalancing may be carried out.

Rebalancing Following the Pricing Date, the Reference Portfolio may be subject to an adjustment pursuant to a Target Portfolio Publication Event in accordance with the provisions herein (any such adjustment a “Rebalancing”).

If a Target Portfolio Publication Event occurs and the Calculation Agent initiates a Rebalancing on the corresponding Reference Portfolio Implementation Date, but before such Rebalancing has taken effect, a subsequent Target Portfolio Publication Event occurs, then the Calculation Agent, acting in good faith in a commercially reasonable manner, may either:

- (i) complete the Rebalancing in respect of the first Target Portfolio Publication Event and, after such Rebalancing has taken effect, initiate a Rebalancing in respect of the subsequent Target Portfolio Publication Event immediately thereafter; or
- (ii) discontinue the Rebalancing in respect of the first Target Portfolio Publication Event and, instead, initiate a Rebalancing by the Reference Portfolio Implementation Date corresponding to the subsequent Target Portfolio Publication Event.

The Rebalancing will not be deemed to have completed until the Calculation Agent, acting in good faith in a commercially reasonable manner, determines that the purchase or sale of the required number of units of such Stock Constituent would be complete.

The Calculation Agent, acting in good faith in a commercially reasonable manner, may not initiate or complete a Rebalancing in the following circumstances:

- (i) The Calculation Agent determines that a Market Disruption Event or Rebalancing Hedging Disruption Event has occurred in relation to any Stock Constituent.

In this paragraph, “Rebalancing Hedging Disruption Event” means the determination by the Calculation Agent that it would not be reasonably practicable or it would otherwise be undesirable, for any reason, for a notional investor wholly or partially to establish, re-establish, substitute or maintain any hedging transaction which in the determination of the Calculation Agent would be necessary or desirable to hedge the obligations of an issuer of securities linked to the performance of the Reference Portfolio (such reasons may include, but are not limited to (i) any material illiquidity in the market for any Stock Constituent, (ii) a change in any applicable law (including, without limitation, any tax law) or the promulgation of, or change in, the interpretation of any court, tribunal or regulatory authority with competent jurisdiction of any applicable law (including any action taken by a taxing authority); or (iii) the general unavailability of market participants who would agree to enter into any such hedging transaction on commercially reasonable terms or at all; and

- (ii) the Calculation Agent determines that it would not be reasonably practicable for a notional investor in the same position as the Issuer to purchase or sell a Stock Constituent or Eligible Stock Constituent due to compliance, liquidity, unreasonable market impact, regulatory, reporting or reputational constraints, take-over considerations, internal restrictions or lack of internal approval.

Eligible Stock Constituent

Each Target Portfolio Constituent which meets the criteria (i) to (v) below shall be deemed an “Eligible Stock Constituent”.

- (i) The Calculation Agent shall, acting in good faith in a commercially reasonable manner, make the following determinations in respect of each Target Portfolio Constituent:
 - (a) in respect of an onshore stock in India, Vietnam, Saudi Arabia and/or Brazil, only an equivalent ADR or GDR (as applicable) shall be eligible for inclusion in the Reference Portfolio;
 - (b) in respect of an onshore stock in Thailand, only an equivalent NVDR (“non-voting depository receipt”) shall be eligible for inclusion in the Reference Portfolio; and
 - (c) in respect of an onshore stock in the People’s Republic of China (excluding Hong Kong, Macau and Taiwan) (“PRC”) and such stock is not available for trade through the relevant exchange connect schemes between PRC and Hong Kong, only an equivalent ADR or GDR (as applicable) shall be eligible for inclusion in the Reference Portfolio. Furthermore, any stock listed on the ChiNext or STAR Board market, even if available via the connect schemes, shall not be selected as a Reference Portfolio Component.
- (ii) Furthermore, any stock that does not meet the Inclusion Liquidity Criteria as defined hereafter and as reasonably determined by the Calculation Agent shall not be eligible for inclusion in the Reference Portfolio, provided that if such stock is already a Stock Constituent in the Reference Portfolio and meets the Exclusion Liquidity Criteria, such Stock Constituent shall be permitted to remain in the Reference Portfolio following a Rebalancing;
- (iii) Furthermore, any stock that does not meet the Market Cap Criteria as defined hereafter and as reasonably determined by the Calculation shall not be eligible for inclusion in the Reference Portfolio;
- (iv) Furthermore, any stock that is subject to a Disrupted Day as reasonable determined by the Calculation Agent shall not be eligible for inclusion in the Reference Portfolio; and
- (v) Furthermore, if the Calculation Agent determines that it would not be reasonably practicable for a notional investor in the same position as the Issuer to acquire or unwind exposure to a Target Stock Constituent, due to compliance, regulatory, reporting or reputational constraints, take-over considerations, internal restrictions or lack of internal approval, such stock shall not be eligible for inclusion in the Reference Portfolio.

Initial Target Weight and Final Target Weight

The Calculation Agent will determine the initial target weight of each Stock Constituent (the “Initial Target Weight”) in accordance with the following methodology and provisions:

- 1) If the Report specifies a weight, allocation or exposure in respect of each Target Portfolio Constituent, then the Initial Target Weight of each Eligible Stock Constituent shall be as specified in the Report, save that if the list of Eligible Constituents is not the same as the list of Target Portfolio Constituents, then the Initial Target Weight in respect of each Eligible Stock Constituent shall be proportionally adjusted to ensure that the sum of the Initial Target Weights of all Eligible Stock Constituents shall equal 100%.
- 2) If the Report does not specify a weight in respect of each Target Portfolio Constituent, then the Initial Target Weight of each Eligible Stock Constituent shall be 100% divided by the number of Eligible Stock Constituent to ensure an equal Initial Target Weight in respect of each Target Portfolio Constituent.

Notwithstanding the above, and prior to the application of the below further provisions, if the Calculation Agent determines that it would not be reasonably practicable for a notional investor in the same position as the Issuer to adjust or unwind exposure to a Stock Constituent currently in the Reference Portfolio, then the Initial Target Weight in respect of each Eligible Stock Constituent (as initially calculated in accordance with the above two provisions) shall be proportionally adjusted to ensure that the sum of the Initial Target Weights of all Eligible Stock Constituents shall equal 100% minus the weight of the Stock Constituent(s) which cannot be adjusted or unwound by such notional investor.

Following application of the above provisions, the Calculation Agent will then determine the final target weight of each Stock Constituent (the “Final Target Weight”) in accordance with the following methodology and provisions, potentially requiring an iterative and sequential process as determined by the Calculation Agent acting in good faith and reasonably:

- 3) In respect of onshore stocks in Korea or Taiwan:
 - (a) If the sum of the Initial Target Weights in respect of Eligible Stock Constituents that are deemed to be Korea or Taiwan onshore stocks is greater than 10% in respect of each country separately, then an equivalent ADR or GDR (as applicable) shall replace the onshore stock that initially formed part of the list of Eligible Stock Constituents (and the Initial Target Weight originally allocated to such Korea or Taiwan onshore stock shall be now allocated to the ADR or GDR replacing such Korea or Taiwan onshore stock).
 - (b) If the sum of the Initial Target Weights for Eligible Stock Constituents that are deemed to be Korea or Taiwan onshore stock remains greater than 10% in respect of any of these countries following the application of provision 3(a) above, then the sum of Initial Target Weights in respect of onshore Korea and/or Taiwan stocks (as the case may be) shall be proportionally reduced to 10%, and the sum of the Initial Target Weights in respect of all other Eligible Stock Constituents shall be proportionally increased.
- 4) In respect of stocks denominated in EM Currencies:
 - (a) If the sum of Initial Target Weights in respect of Eligible Stock Constituents that are denominated in EM Currencies is greater than 20%, then an equivalent ADR or GDR (as applicable) shall replace the onshore stock that initially formed part of the list of Eligible Stock Constituents (and the Initial Target Weight originally allocated to such stocks denominated in EM Currencies shall be now allocated to the ADR or GDR replacing such stock denominated in EM Currencies).
 - (b) If the sum of the Initial Target Weights for Eligible Stock Constituents that are denominated in EM Currencies remains greater than 20% following the application of provision 4(a) above, then the sum of the Initial Target Weights in respect of such stocks denominated in EM Currencies shall be proportionally reduced to 20%, and the sum of the Initial Target Weights in respect of all other Eligible Stock Constituents shall be proportionally increased.

For the avoidance of doubt, the equivalent ADR or GDR shall remain subject to the aforementioned Inclusion Liquidity Criteria, Exclusion Liquidity Criteria and Market Cap Criteria.

- 5) Where the Initial Target Weight of any Eligible Stock Constituent, following the application of all of the above provisions, is greater than the Max Stock Exposure, the Initial Target Weights shall be proportionally adjusted pro-rata such that no Target Weight is greater than the Max Stock Exposure. In case where the sum of the Initial Target Weights following this provision is less than 100%, the shortfall will be allocated into Cash Position.

The weight computed in accordance with the above process shall then be the Final Target Weight in respect of each Eligible Stock Constituent.

For the avoidance of doubt, the Cash Position following a Rebalancing shall be computed by the Calculation Agent, acting in good faith and in a commercially reasonable manner, as the difference between the Reference Portfolio Level immediately before a Rebalancing is implemented and the market value of the Stock Constituents immediately following such rebalancing, taking into account the relevant Adjustment Fees, if any. The Cash Position can be negative from time to time.

Note on Deviation between Final Target Weight and Weight

Note that the actual Weight of each Stock Constituent at the time of inclusion or adjustment in the Reference Portfolio may deviate from the Final Target Weight prior to the initiation of the Rebalancing due to various factors, including but not limited to the movement in the market prices of each Stock Constituent between the time the Final Target Weight is calculated and Stock Constituents are notionally added to, removed from or adjustment within the Reference Portfolio. The Calculation Agent will determine the number of units of each Stock Constituent to be added to the Reference Portfolio taking into account the Final Target Weight and the prevailing market conditions, acting in good faith in a commercially reasonable manner.

Max Stock Exposure

30% total exposure of a Stock Constituent, as determined by the Calculation Agent.

Inclusion Liquidity Criteria

A 30-day average daily trading volume greater than or equal to USD 40,000,000, as determined by the Calculation Agent.

Exclusion Liquidity Criteria

A 30-day average daily trading volume greater than or equal to USD 38,000,000, as determined by the Calculation Agent.

Market Cap Criteria	A floating market capitalization greater than or equal to USD 2,000,000,000 as determined by the Calculation Agent.
Reference Rate	The Reference Rate is observed on every day and shall be equal to the EUR Forward Implied 1 Week Rate (Bloomberg Page: EURI1W Curncy) (a "Relevant Screen Page") plus a spread (the "Spread") (each a "Reference Rate Component"). For the avoidance of doubt, the Reference Rate may be negative from time to time. In respect of a positive Cash Position, the Spread shall be 0.00%. In respect of a Negative Cash Position, the Spread shall be equal to 0.40%. Upon the occurrence of a Reference Rate Adjustment Event, the Calculation Agent may make adjustments acting in good faith and in a commercially reasonable manner to (i) any or all of the Reference Rate Components (including for the avoidance of doubt, the Spread), and (ii) the then prevailing formula for determining the Reference Rate, and shall determine the effective date of such adjustment(s).
EM Currencies	Means TWD, KRW, THB, MYR, PHP, IDR, ZAR, RUB, TRY, MXN, INR, VND, SAR, BRL and CNY
Weight	In respect of a Stock Constituent and with respect to the Pricing Date or any Weekday, the notional value of such Stock Constituent (as converted into the Reference Portfolio Currency at the then prevailing currency exchange rate, if required) divided by the Reference Portfolio Level, as determined by the Calculation Agent.
Exposure	In respect of a Stock Constituent and with respect to the Pricing Date or any Weekday, the notional value of such Stock Constituent (as converted into the Reference Portfolio Currency at the then prevailing currency exchange rate, if required), as determined by the Calculation Agent.
